

What we need in the isp industry is competition, not a monopoly.
If Bell South has it's way all the local isp's will be put out of business and prices will soar. This will not help the general public or the economy.